

Plan of action chalked out my IQAC

Plan of Action	Outcome Achieved
To enhance the infrastructure	The Institute has planned to improve and enhance its infrastructure facilities from last year, in the continuation of construction and renovation work, the institute has constructed ramp from ground floor to 1 st and 2 nd floor, extension of reception area, construction of parking shed and road from main gate to college building. The Institute spent an amount of approximate by 15 lakhs upon the construction and renovation work.
To Conduct professional Development Programme PDP	The Institute, always emphasizes upon the importance of professional development of all the staff members. To attain this the institute organized Professional development Programme PDP in blended on 27-12-2023 in which app. hundred (100) teachers and research scholars participated. The Theme of this PDP has “Empowering teachers in educating the digital generation: with special reference to NEP 2020.” Resource persons of this programme highlighted the role of digital tools in guiding educational activities and facilitating learning.
Women Empowerment Programme	The Institute every year organise activities in the month of march, especially on the occasion of International Women’s Day to promote equality, equity and the empower the women. This year, institute organised a grand event named as Women Fest-2024 in which many activities like dancing, singing, poetry self-defence and martial art, cooking, beauty enchantment, showcasing of ancient heritage, handicraft, painting and creative art activities were organized during this event.
National Workshop/ Conference	IQAC of the institute organised a two-day National Workshop in collaboration with M.M. College of Education, Fatehabad on 19-04-2024 and 20-04-2024 upon the theme Teaching 2.0 with Blended learning Practice.” The major objective of this workshop was to offer professional development opportunities for teachers to develop skills in designing, delivering and addressing learning experiences effectively. Prof. Vandana Punia, Dean & Head of department of Education, HRDC, Guru Jambheshwer University of Science and Technology, Hisar and Dr. Kavita Batra, Assistant. Professor, M.M. College of Education, Fatehabad were the resource person of this workshop. Participants took a lot of interest in this workshop and acquiror the knowledge about open educational, resources, chatbots, GPT and the especially how to develop MOOCs. Along with this various teaching learning model’s hybrid learning and the use of online learning platform was also demonstrated. Approximately 55 participants from different colleges attended this workshop in offline and online mode.
Outreach Programmes for community service	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="475 1720 1401 2020">• NSS unit of the institute organized a one-day camp on “ Water Conservation” at Government Senior Secondary School village Arniawali on 09-02-2024. Under this camp on arverness programs along with a rally on ‘ □□ □□□□ ‘ “Conserve water” was organized. The students of the college discussed various water saving techniques such as rainwater harvesting drip irrigation and efficient water usage at home with school students. Mrs. Gurjot Kaur , faculty of the institute , outlined the importance of water

	conservation and its impact on the environment and commination before the students and staff of the school. After that to raise awareness, about water conservation among the people of the village a rally was organized where N.S.S. volunteers, school students, school staff and the institute staff members participated and spoke the slogans related water conservation and its importance in the life. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • N.S.S. unit of the institute organsed a one-day blood donation camp on 10-02-2024 in which 08 and another blood donation camp at shiv shakti blood bank, Sirsa was organized in which 05 students donated their blood to members of the college donated blood to have the lives of people / patients and improve their health outcome. • N.S.S. unit of the institute agained cleanliness program and literacy programe during seven-day special camp in sawanpura Dhani, near the college , plantation programe , and road safety rules with the help of standard signs and symbols were told by the college students to school students of sawanpura Dhani. Stationary items were also donated to the school students by N.S.S. volunteers Yoga and Health awareness activities were also organized in the college in which students of Govt. primary school, sawanpura Dhani and other community members partiapated. • A ralley was also organized on the occasion of “No Smoking Day” in swanpura Dhani. • SayNo To Plastics, Segregation of water , Importance of Tress, Energy saving techniques were also told to the school students by NSS Volunteers. • A Free health checkup cap was also organized in college in which 04 doctors from shah Satnam Ji Specialty Hospital were invited. A number of school students and community people of Sawanpura Dhani along with institute is own students and members of the staff took advantages from the camp. • Skill development programme in which making of artificial flowers , painting , Clay modelling were taught/ demonstrated by the institute staff member to the school students and community people in college. • Mr. Gagan Verma , a community member belongs Sahuwala village of Sirsa was invited to explain the methods to make vermi compost. Community members of sawanpura Dhani along with students of village school and institute students and staff members partiapated and attained the knowledge about vermi compost manufacturing even at homes and school/ colleges.
Recognition of College Under 2F section of UGC.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Institute, at present running 03(Three) programmes D.El.Ed., B.Ed. and M.Ed. and all these programmes are under the “Education” discipline but the institute had applied for the recognition of college under section 2F from of university grants commission (UGC) and obtained recognition and included in the list of under section 2F of UGC

Plan of action chalked out my IQAC

	via letter no. 8-658/2024 (CPP-1/C) dated 11.09.2024. The institute is now planning to file application for now programmed programmes to make the education college a multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary institute so that the students can take advantages of multidisciplinary education as per NEP-2020 directions.
--	---